

Receivables Accounting Team Member

If you are in, the future is ours!

Our employees are the source of our strength.

With the vision of being Turkey's most valuable and most preferred industrial company, we would like you to help us grow!

Candidates should have the following qualifications:

- Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration, Economics, Management Engineering, Industrial Engineering, (Master Degree is a plus),
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills in English,
- Good command of MS Office programs
- Experience in accounting and financial reporting, commercial law and tax legislation is considered as an asset,
- Strong analytical, data gathering, and problem-solving skills,
- Excellent communication and presentation skills and ability to build solid relationships,
- Being a good team player and willing to be a part of accounting project teams,
- Having desire to improve the current processes and deliver impressive results,
- Completion of military service for male candidates is an asset.
- The position is located in Kocaeli

Job Description :

- Preparation of account reconciliations of dealers in accordance with the Reconciliation Plan for both domestic & foreign dealers.
- Receivables Accounting Team Member ensures/ monitors all local and foreign receivables operations.
- Serves as a business partner to Finance, Sales and After Sales Operations,
- Communicates with dealers both local and foreign,
- Manage the payments of dealers arising from current payables on a weekly basis by taking into account the cash flow balance of the company
- Control and reporting of accounts receivable and overdue debts
- Monthly comparison and reconciliation of the pre /Accounting systems (receivable collection system) and Legal Accounting records, ensuring consistency of the records.
- Identifies opportunities for digitalization and automation of processes and leads digitalization projects.

"The only criterion evaluated in the recruitment and employment is suitability for the job; equal opportunity is provided without any discrimination."